Each Center may have one intern serving a single two-year term, as a nonvoting member of its Board of Directors. Interns will be young professionals (physician, technologist, or scientist) in training, or in practice within 10 years of graduation.

A call for nominations will be issued at the SNMMI Midwinter Meeting, and sent to the Young Professionals Group, general membership of each Council, and Nuclear Medicine Residency Training Program Directors. Nominees may be self-nominated. Nominated individuals will send their curriculum vitae, statement of professional goals, and the name of the Center on which they would like to serve, to the Director of Leadership Services for distribution to the Center. Interns will be selected by a simple majority vote of the Center’s Board of Directors no later than the meeting date of the SNMMI Annual Meeting.

The term of internship will be two years, beginning with the SNMMI Midwinter Meeting proceeding the intern election. Interns are expected to attend the business meetings at the Midwinter and Annual Meetings, and participate in conference calls of their Center. Interns will be assigned a mentor, who will be appointed by the president of the Center. Interns may be assigned a project supervised by their mentor. Orientation of new interns will be held at the Midwinter meeting. The Chairperson of the Committee on Councils and Centers will give an overview of the program and its goals. A staff member from the Leadership Services Department at SNMMI will give an overview of SNMMI structure, governance, and operations. The president of each Center will then meet individually with each intern to review duties and responsibilities.

Financial support for the internship program will be provided by the Society of Nuclear Medicine in the form of reimbursement for travel expenses and meeting registration up to $1,500 per intern per year.
