OPERATING PROCEDURES
for the
ACADEMIC COUNCIL
of
THE SOCIETY OF NUCLEAR MEDICINE AND MOLECULAR IMAGING, INC.

I. MISSION:

The Academic Council is dedicated to the scientific interchange of ideas among SNMMI members who have an interest in training and education of undergraduates and graduates in Nuclear Medicine (which includes general Nuclear Medicine, Cardiovascular Nuclear Medicine, PET/CT imaging and Molecular Imaging). The overall mission of the Academic Council is to:

- promote medical education, research and patient care related to Nuclear Medicine,
- provide to membership expertise in the training and education of undergraduates and graduates in Nuclear Medicine, including in mentoring and leadership,
- provide a forum for members for discussion of issues and problems of mutual interest and concern within the Nuclear Medicine community, as well as an informal exchange of ideas and programs,
- provide outreach to other professionals and organizations,
- nurture new membership into the society,
- serve as a resource to Young Professionals in career development, and
- serve as a resource to SNMMI leadership.

Within the Council there is a subgroup of Program Directors/Associate Program Directors of Nuclear Medicine residency programs (the Nuclear Medicine Program Directors Association, NMPDA).

The Academic Council is an advocate for Nuclear Medicine education and training to organized Radiology and Nuclear Medicine, as well as providing an avenue of communication for Program Directors and Coordinators to accrediting bodies, certification boards, other specialty societies, and government agencies.

II. OBJECTIVES:

A. To establish and maintain an organization of members with an interest in academic programs for training and education and for the purpose of providing a forum and a mechanism, whereby information may be discussed and disseminated. The Council will distribute a newsletter to the membership at least twice a year. The Council will maintain an updated website under the auspices of the Society.

B. To provide a mechanism for the promotion and encouragement of training and education undergraduates and graduates in the areas of Nuclear Medicine (including general nuclear medicine, cardiovascular nuclear medicine, PET/CT imaging, molecular imaging and therapy with unsealed radioactivity). The Council will provide a mechanism for rewarding young investigators, if appropriate, who excel in research or educational activities at the annual (summer) meeting.
C. To provide a source of information relating to academic programs to the Society of Nuclear Medicine. The Council will offer assistance to the Scientific Program committee, recommending reviewers and other volunteers for various positions on the committee.

D. The Council will submit an annual business plan and budget, outlining its planned activities for the subsequent twelve months, to the Society’s Board of Directors.

III. MEMBERSHIP
Membership is open to all Society members in good standing, including physicians, scientists, technologists and other interested parties. Membership in this Council may be attained by indicating the desire to join during the annual renewal of SNMMI membership or by filing application with the Society at other times of the year.

Council membership is voluntary. Society members are eligible for Council Membership. Membership dues for each Council are determined by each Council over and above regular Society Membership Dues and collected with the annual dues billing process of the Society.

IV. DUES
Dues for membership in the Council will be determined by the Council’s Board of Directors. Dues are payable by October 1 of each year. Council leadership will be notified by the Society when council dues are delinquent. The rights and privileges of membership including voting, holding of office, committee membership, and the participation in meetings are suspended during the period of delinquency. Rights and privileges will be reinstated upon payment of delinquent dues within the year.

V. ORGANIZATION
The Society shall have four (4) organizational categories: Chapters, Centers, Councils, and the Technologist Section. Each organizational component is an integral part of the Society with representation in the House of Delegates. Councils are not legally separate entities from the Society and must act in accord with Society policies and procedures.

VI. OPERATING PROCEDURES
Councils adhere to Society Bylaws and policies, while operating under their own Operating Procedures and budget process approved by the Society’s Board of Directors. The Operating Procedures of each Council shall be approved by the Society’s Committee on Councils. These Operating Procedures must be consistent with the Bylaws and policies of the Society.

VII. BOARD OF DIRECTORS
A. Composition:
The Council Board of Directors (BOD) is composed of the following: The Officers of the Council (President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Chair of NMPDA), the Immediate Past-President, six (6) elected non-officer Board members, and at least one (1) SNMMI Board of Directors member appointed by the Society’s President to serve on the Council’s BOD. Any Council member elected to the Society of Nuclear Medicine House of Delegates or serving on the Board of Directors will be an “Ex-Officio” member of the Board without vote. Individuals representing other Councils, Committees of the Society, other organizations, or other Societies, may be nominated by their respective organizations to serve as liaisons to the Council, providing the Council Board approves the nomination. All approved liaison representatives will be invited to attend Board and Council meetings but shall have no vote unless they are Board members. The council Intern is a non-voting member of the BOD and serves a single two-year term.

B. Eligibility for Board of Directors:
Academic Council members will be considered for BOD positions if they fulfill all of the following conditions:
1. Is an Academic Council Member in good standing for at least two (2) consecutive years
2. Has documented interest/involvement in Academic Council activities. Has attended at least two (2) Academic Council meetings (Mid-Winter and/or Annual) in the past two (2) years
3. Provides a short (one paragraph) statement of interest to the Nominating Committee

C. Meetings of the Board
The annual meeting of the Board will be held in conjunction with the Annual (summer) meeting of the SNMMI. An interim meeting of the Board shall be held at the Midwinter meeting (MWM) to focus on detailed plans for carrying out the Council’s objectives. If funds are available the costs of travel, accommodations and/or communications related to Board members attending the interim meeting may be covered by the Council and/or the Society. Special meetings of the Board in the event of an emergency may be called by the President of the Council.

D. Quorum:
A quorum will consist of a simple majority of members on the Board of Directors.

E. Standing Rules:
The Board may adopt standing rules without previous notice, by two-thirds majority vote of those members in attendance at a business meeting. At any meeting these rules may be suspended by a two-thirds majority vote, or they may be amended or rescinded by a two-thirds vote. If notice of the proposed action was given at a previous meeting or in the call for this meeting, they may be amended or rescinded by a majority vote.

VIII. OFFICERS

A. Officers:
The officers of the Council are the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Chair of the Nuclear Medicine Program Directors Association (NMPDA).

B. Term:
The term of office of the President shall be two years and he/she cannot succeed him/herself; the President ascends to this office after serving as Vice President. The term of office of the Vice President shall be two years and he/she cannot succeed him/herself; the Vice President is elected to this office by the membership of the Council. The term of office of the Secretary shall be two years. The term of office of the Treasurer shall be two years. The first year of the Treasurer’s term shall coincide with the second year of the Secretary’s term. The term of office of the NMPDA Chair is two years. The term of an officer shall commence with the conclusion of the annual Business Meeting of the Council and terminate at the conclusion of the appropriate subsequent annual Business Meeting.

C. Vacancies:
In the event of a vacancy in the office of President, the Vice President shall assume the office of President for the unexpired term in addition to the elected term. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Vice President, the President shall appoint an individual, with approval of the Council Board of Directors, until the next annual election. In the event of a vacancy in the offices of Secretary or Treasurer, the Council’s Board of Directors shall appoint an individual until the next annual election. The individual filing the vacancy for the Secretary or Treasurer will not be limited from holding a full term of that office if elected.

D. Removal:
Any person holding elective office under these Operating Procedures may be removed from office by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the full Council Board membership. The Chair of SNMMI Committee on Ethics will be notified of any intent to file formal charges against an officer. Formal charges will be made and circulated to all members of the Council Board and to the officer charged, at least thirty days before the meeting. The officer charged will have the right to personal appearance and defense before the Council Board at any regular or special meeting. The officer will also have the right to appeal the Council Board’s decision to the House of Delegates of the Society for final disposition.

E. Responsibilities:
1. President:
   Presides at all meetings of the Council Board of Directors, the annual Business Meeting of the Council and any special meetings that may be called. He/she appoints members and chairpersons of all special committees with the advice of the Council Board of Directors. He/she is an ex-officio member of all committees. He/she represents the Council’s interest at meetings of the Society and serves ex-officio with voting privileges on the Society’s Committee on Councils. He/She acts in an emergency situation without a meeting of the Board with the consent of the majority of the Board of Directors. He/she is Chairperson of the Program Committee and presides at all programs of the Council. He/she is responsible for providing reports to the SNMMI management and/or the Society’s Board of Directors describing the activities of the Council. He/she is involved in the annual budgeting process of the Council.

2. Vice President:
   He/She will assume the presidency at the conclusion of the term of the President. He/she will fill the immediate functions of the President in case of temporary or permanent absence or disability. He/she is Vice-Chair of the Program Committee and is responsible for planning the programs for SNMMI and other meetings during the second year of office, under the leadership of the President.
3. Secretary:
   He/she serves as Secretary to the Board of Directors. He/she is responsible for the keeping of minutes, notification of meetings and all functions ordinarily implied by his/her office. He/she is is editorially responsible for the Council newsletter.

4. Treasurer:
   He/she is Chairperson of the Finance Committee. He/she is responsible for reviewing the quarterly Council financial statements of activity prepared by the Society Council Manager. He/she acts as fiscal consultant to the Council Board of Directors, makes reports in writing and orally of the monies received and expended, together with a detailed statement of the financial condition of the Council at each business meeting of the Council. He/she is responsible for assisting the Council President in drafting the annual business plan/budget to be submitted to the Society.

5. Nuclear Medicine Program Directors Association (NMPDA) Chair:
   The Chair of the NMPDA is an Officer of the Board of Directors. He/she acts as liaison between the Board of Directors and NMPDA to facilitate communication between the groups; and provides a report/presentation to the Board of Directors at each meeting to update members about NMPDA issues. The Chair, NMPDA, is appointed by the Council President and is preferably a member of the ACGME Residency Review Committee.

6. Immediate Past President:
   He/she is responsible for chairing the Nominating/Awards Committee.

IX. BOARD MEMBERS

A. Responsibilities
   The Board has general charge of the business affairs and the property of the Council; may make rules and regulations as it deems necessary for the management and well-being of the Council and for carrying out its objectives; and may delegate to a Committee any of its functions and powers upon terms specified in a resolution to the effect; adopted by a two-thirds vote of the members in attendance at a business meeting.

B. Term:
   The term of office of an elected non-officer Board member will be two years. Half of Board members will be elected annually. The elected term of office of a Board member may not aggregate more than four consecutive years and does not include his/her tenure as an appointed member of the Board to fill a vacancy. His/her years as an officer shall not be counted in the aggregate of the years he/she may serve as an elected Board member.

C. Meetings of the Board
   The annual meeting of the Board will be held in conjunction with the Annual (summer) meeting of the SNMMI. An interim meeting of the Board shall be held at the Midwinter meeting (MWM) to focus on detailed plans for carrying out the Council’s objectives. If funds are available the costs of travel, accommodations and/or communications related to Board members attending the interim meeting may be covered by the Council and/or the Society. Special meetings of the Board in the event of an emergency may be called by the President of the Council.

D. Quorum:
A quorum will consist of a simple majority of members on the Board of Directors.

E. Standing Rules:
The Board may adopt standing rules without previous notice, by two-thirds majority vote of those members in attendance at a business meeting. At any meeting these rules may be suspended by a two-thirds majority vote, or they may be amended or rescinded by a two-thirds vote. If notice of the proposed action was given at a previous meeting or in the call for this meeting, they may be amended or rescinded by a majority vote. Vacancies:
The Board may fill any permanent vacancy on the Board by electing a member of the Council to complete the unexpired term. The Board will have the power to fill vacancies in any elective office for the period intervening until the next annual meeting. If the Board is unable to fill vacancies for any reason, the President may appoint members to the Board until the next annual election.

F. Removal:
Any person holding elective office under these Operating Procedures may be removed from office by a two-thirds vote of the entire Council Board of Directors. Formal charges will be made and circulated to all members of the Board and to the officers charged, at least thirty days before the meeting. The officer charged will have the right to personal appearance and defense before the Board at any regular or special meeting. The officer will also have the right to appeal the Board’s decision to the Board of Directors of the Society of Nuclear Medicine for final disposition.

X. MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL
The Council membership will meet annually in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Society (i.e. annual Business Meeting), and at other times decided by the Council Board of Directors (usually at the MWM), or in accordance with these Operating Procedures. A quorum is not required to conduct Business Meetings that are informational in nature. However, if motions regarding Council business are made and voted on at a meeting, a quorum of no less than ten general members and two elected officers is required. If a quorum is not present, the motion(s) will be sent to the Council membership for a vote by e-mail ballot at the earliest possible date. Presentation of scientific papers at the Annual Meeting of the Council will be by invitation of the Program Committee. The Council Program Committee will coordinate any Council programs with the Chairman of the Society of Nuclear Medicine’s Program Committee.

XI. COMMITTEES

A. STANDING COMMITTEES
The Standing Committees are composed of members from the Council with the power to accomplish the functions specified in the Operating Procedures.

1. Composition:
The composition of a Standing Committee will be members of the Council, unless otherwise specified. Standing Committees consist of a minimum of three members from the Council including Chair, unless otherwise stated. The Chair of each Standing Committee selects members of the Standing Committee with approval of the Board of Directors. The President or his/her designee may be an “Ex-Officio” member of all committees, except the Nominating Committee.

2. Term:
The term of the office of the member is limited to two years unless otherwise stated.

3. Nominating/Awards Committee
The Nominating /Awards Committee consists of the Immediate Past-President of the Council, who will serve as Chairperson and at least three to four Council members appointed by the Chairperson. The Chair and members will serve for one year. The President shall not serve as a member of this committee.

The duties of the Nominating/Awards Committee include:

(a) Prepare an annual call for nominations to the Council membership

(b) Consider nominations for all offices of the Council.

(c) Formulate a slate of candidates for the offices of Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer and Board of Directors. The Committee will review all nominees and formulate a final slate of candidates. The Nominating Committee will submit the final slate of candidates to the Board of Directors for approval by a majority vote of the Board of Directors. This approved final slate is to be circulated to the voting members council members with the election to be completed under suitable supervision prior to the annual meeting of the Council. A place for write-in candidates will be provided for each position. Should a write-in candidate, on being notified of election to office refuse to serve, the individual with the next highest number of votes will be deemed elected. One person will be elected to each office by a majority vote of the members. An individual can only have their name once on a single ballot. Councils can run two elections in a given year; an individual not elected on one ballot can run again the same year on the second ballot.

(f) In the event of a tie, the Nominating Committee must notify the Council Board of Directors and Membership. The ballot will remain open and voting will continue until a majority vote has been reached by the membership.

(g) Evaluate competitive applications and select recipients of ERF-funded and Council awards for physicians, scientists, and students.
4. Internship Committee
The Internship Committee consists of the President of the Council, who will serve as Chairperson and at least two Council members appointed by the President with approval of a majority of the Council Board of Directors.

The duties of the Internship Committee include:

(a) Review the slate of candidates for the Council Internship position and voting by majority to select the most appropriate individual.
(b) Approve a member of the Council, selected by the Council President, to serve as mentor to the intern.
(c) The mentor will prepare the semi-annual reports of goals and accomplishments for the President’s approval and submission to the Society’s Committee on Councils.

5. Program Coordinators Committee
This is an advisory group to the Academic Council Board of Directors. The Program Coordinators Committee consists of a Chairperson and Committee members; the number and composition of the committee will be selected by the Program Coordinators Chairperson.

B. SPECIAL COMMITTEES
Special committees may be authorized by the Board in accordance with procedures specified in “Standing Rules.” The number of members, functions and duration of existence of such committees will be determined by the Council Board. The members and Chair of these committees will be appointed annually by the President.

XII. COMMITTEE ON COUNCILS AND CENTERS
The House of Delegates has a standing Committee on Councils and Centers which serves as a component of the Society to coordinate in a comprehensive and cohesive manner all policies and programs of Councils and Centers with those of the Society. The Presidents of each Council and Center serve Ex Officio with voting privileges on the Committee. The Committee on Councils and Centers will hold a meeting prior to, and/or meet at the Midwinter Meeting and the Annual Meeting of the Society, as circumstances warrant, with reports to the House of Delegates after each Council meeting. The SNMMI Staff Liaison assist the Committee Chair in processing this report.

XIII. REPRESENTATION TO THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES
The Council shall have two representatives. The Council’s President and Vice-President/or alternate Board members designated by the President shall serve as representatives to the House of Delegates for a term of two years. Academic Council Delegates are limited by the terms of their Council office as representatives to the HOD.

XIV. AMENDMENTS TO THE OPERATING PROCEDURES
Amendment of a Council/Center’s Operating Procedures will require approval by the Council/Center’s membership and the Committee on Councils and Centers. The Council/Center Board of Directors shall determine whether the Operating Procedures need amending. Any proposed changes and/or revisions to Council/Center Operating Procedures should be approved by respective Council/Center Board via telephone conference or electronic communication (e-mail or Web) prior to the Annual Meeting of the Society so that they can, in turn, be forwarded to respective council Membership for review and approval in accordance with requirements of respective Council/Center Operating Procedures. The Operating Procedures of the Council/Center must be in keeping with general principles of the Society of Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging’s Bylaws. Any proposed changes to the Council/Center’s Operating Procedures must be approved by the Council/Center membership and the Council/Center Board of Directors. The proposed changes shall be sent to Committee on Councils and Centers for review and approval and then to the SNMMI House of Delegates for final approval.

XV. PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY
All questions of parliamentary procedure will be determined at all meetings of the Council and the Board by provisions of the Operating Procedures and “Roberts’ Rules of Order” (newly revised). In the event of inconsistency in the foregoing, they shall take precedence in the order set forth.

XVI. DISSOLUTION OF THE ACADEMIC COUNCIL
In the event that the Academic Council ceases to exist, it is hereby resolved that all minutes, books and paper documents will become the property of the Society of Nuclear Medicine for their archival or disposal.

ANNUAL BUDGET PLANNING PROCESS

SNMMI Staff Liaison is responsible for assisting the respective Council, with the active assistance of the Manager, in processing the Council budget in cooperation with the SNMMI Finance Department, with notice and background material forwarded at the beginning of May each year.

Each Council is required to submit an annual business plan and budget to the Society’s Board of Directors in order to gain access to the resources of the Society. This business plan should include pertinent details of activities the Council plans to undertake during each fiscal year. A detailed budget must be included for financial support from the Society to be obtained. Councils should use the recommended business plan outline in the appendices to these procedures.

Council may keep up to $20,000 of excess revenue generated in any given fiscal year.

Council Budgets are subsequently reviewed and approved by the Committee on Finance and the Board of Directors of the Society at the time the Society approves the budget for its forthcoming Fiscal Year [Fall Board Meeting].

COUNCIL OPERATING PROCEDURES

The SNMMI Staff Liaison is responsible for maintaining current and past editions of the Council’s Operating Procedures. Each file should include the current Council Operating Procedures, with a document date on each page indicating last date page was revised.
ANNUAL ELECTION PROCESS

The SNMMI staff liaison is responsible for tracking terms of office for Council Officers and Board Members, informing the President and the Chairman of the Council Nominating/Awards Committee of any pending vacancies at least four (4) weeks prior to Council Meetings held during the SNMMI Mid-Winter Meeting.

The Council Nominating/Awards Committee with the active assistance of the SNMMI Staff Liaison will process the annual election for the Council in the spring of each year. The SNMMI Staff Liaison is responsible for formally informing the Council President of the election results immediately after collating the results.

Election procedures:
   a. The staff liaison and the Nominating/Awards Committee will develop the call for nominations.
   b. SNMMI staff will distribute the call for nominations to Council membership; allowing adequate time for responses.
   c. The Nominating/Awards Committee will review all nominees and formulate a final slate of candidates. An individual can only have their name once on a single ballot.
   d. The Nominating/Awards Committee will submit the final slate of candidates to the Council’s Board of Directors for approval by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
   e. The Council can hold two elections in a given year; an individual not elected on one ballot can run again the same year on the second ballot.
   f. SNMMI staff will distribute the final slate to the voting Council members with the election to be completed under suitable supervision prior to the annual meeting of the Council.
   g. A place for write-in candidates will be provided for each position.
   h. One person will be elected to each office by a majority vote of the members voting.
   i. Should a write-in candidate, on being notified of election to office refuse to serve, the individual with the next highest number of votes will be deemed elected.
   j. In the event of a tie, the Nominating Committee must notify the Council Board of Directors and Membership. The ballot will remain open and voting will continue until a majority vote has been reached by the membership. The process will be established in consultation with the Nominating Committee.

SNMMI INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Each Council may have one or two interns serving a single two-year term, as a nonvoting member of its Board of Directors. Interns will be early-career professionals (physician, technologist, or scientist) in training, or in practice within 10 years of graduation.

Notices for open internship positions will be publicized through the SNMMI every two years in the fall and sent to the Young Professionals Group, the Board of Directors of each Council, and Nuclear Medicine Residency Training Program Directors. Individuals must apply for the Council Internship by submitting an application including their curriculum vitae and statement of professional goals. All applications will be submitted to the SNMMI Governance and Membership Department for distribution to the appropriate Council Board of Directors for their review and selection of their new intern. Interns will be selected by a simple majority vote of the Council’s Board of Directors by March of the year the Intern will start.

The term of internship will be two years which will begin at the conclusion of the SNMMI Annual meeting following the selection of the new intern. Interns are expected to attend the Board of Directors meetings at the Midwinter and Annual Meetings and participate in conference calls of their Council. Interns will be assigned a mentor, who will be appointed by the president of the Council. Interns may be assigned a project supervised by their mentor. Interns may be nominated to serve on the Council Board of Directors and stand for election upon successful completion of their internship.

Incoming interns will participate in an orientation offered at the Annual meeting or via a webinar after the Annual meeting. The Chairperson of the Committee on Councils and Centers will give an overview of the program and its goals. A staff member from SNMMI’s Governance and Membership Department will give an overview of SNMMI structure, governance, and operations. The president of each Council will then meet individually with each intern to review duties and responsibilities.

Financial support for the internship program will be provided by SNMMI in the form of reimbursement for travel expenses up to $1,500 per intern per fiscal year. Interns who are considered “In-Training” members of the SNMMI will also receive complimentary registration to the SNMMI Mid-Winter and Annual meetings. The Council will include a budget for the internship program when submitting an annual Business Plan.

The internship program will be directed by the Committee on Councils and Centers, who will report to the SNMMI Board of Directors twice a year. The Council will report on the intern’s accomplishments and goals twice a year to the Committee on Council and Center.

ROSTER, COUNCIL BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The SNMMI Staff Liaison will maintain current rosters of the Council’s Officers and Board. The SNMMI Staff Liaison also maintains a current roster of all SNMMI Council Presidents.

After the Annual Meeting, the SNMMI Staff Liaison is responsible for distributing copies of the roster to Council Board Members, along with a roster of all Council Presidents. The latter should also be forwarded to each SNMMI Board Member. The SNMMI Staff Liaison is responsible for maintaining permanent file copies of Council rosters for each year in permanent files.

COUNCIL BOARD OF DIRECTOR MEETINGS

The SNMMI Staff Liaison is responsible for assisting the Council President in meeting arrangements and agenda preparation for each Council board and business meeting.
The SNMMI Staff Liaison is responsible for checking meeting arrangements and on-site requirements for each Council Meeting.

Final drafts of meeting minutes will be submitted by the SNMMI Staff Liaison to the Council Secretary for final review. The Council Secretary is responsible for reviewing and finalizing meeting minutes. The Staff liaison will ensure minutes are filed electronically and available for review.

EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS

Assigned Council members are responsible for Council educational and professional program development and management in conjunction with the SNMMI Education Department, Marketing Department and the Meetings Department staff, predicated on program policies and schedules, approved Council Budget, etc.

NEWSLETTERS AND WEBSITE

The Council will maintain a newsletter and website.

The Council will have an editorial board for the newsletter, and work with SNMMI staff to publish the newsletter. The editorial board will be responsible for developing substantive content for the newsletter and SNMMI staff will supply administrative content. The editorial board is responsible for reviewing final drafts of the newsletter before distribution.

SNMMI staff is responsible for distribution of newsletters (electronic and/or printed) to Council Membership.

Each Council is also responsible for reviewing information contained on its web pages on the SNMMI website. The SNMMI Staff Liaison assists in this ongoing effort to effectively communicate the activities of each Council to its members, SNMMI members, and the public.
